INDEPENDENT MEDICO-LEGAL EXPERT REPORTS

IMLER Agency Management Fees

At Independent Medico-Legal Expert Reports Ltd (IMLER), we believe that transparency, fairness and value should be at the heart of every expert witness instruction.

Unlike many medico-legal agencies, IMLER is wholly transparent about its charges. Our Agency Management Fee is always shown separately from the Expert Witness's Professional Fee, enabling our clients to see precisely what they are paying for. There are no hidden administration charges or undisclosed commissions.

Our Agency Management Fees are fixed, transparent and proportionate to the Expert Witness's Professional Fee. This ensures that our clients know exactly what they will pay for IMLER's services before an instruction proceeds, with no hidden administration charges or unexpected costs.

The value of our service extends far beyond introducing an Expert Witness. IMLER manages the entire instruction process on your behalf, including identifying the most suitable expert, obtaining quotations and availability, coordinating appointments, managing documentation, liaising with all parties, monitoring progress, administering invoices and payments, and ensuring that each instruction proceeds efficiently.

For solicitors and insurers, outsourcing this administration saves valuable fee earner time, reduces internal costs and allows legal professionals to focus on progressing their clients' cases.

For litigants in person, IMLER provides an essential service throughout the litigation journey.

Obtaining expert evidence that complies with the Civil Procedure Rules, particularly CPR Part 35, can be complex without specialist knowledge. We help ensure that the correct expert is instructed, the appropriate documentation is provided, and the report is prepared in accordance with the Court's requirements, reducing the risk of delay or non-compliance.
